Notes on How the Best Ordeal Date Was Determined

1. Many Members cards or book entries had just the month while others had the exact date for the same month: For example Joe Smith: Ordeal Date June 1970 _Jim Green: Ordeal Date June 12, 1970. Where a number of these indicated a specific date and some only indicated the month those with only the month were given the specific date.

2. Once most of the actual Ordeal dates were established members who had only a year were given the date of the Ordeal with the most candidates for that year. Members who had a Ordeal date of just the month, but for which there was no Ordeal were given the nearest established Ordeal date.

3. Dates were modified to reflect the Saturday of the weekend. If it was a specific date but was not a Friday, Saturday or Sunday the Saturday of the nearest established Ordeal was used.

4. Prior to 1950 Ordeals were held on Friday of each week of summer camp at Camp Osborn.
